Biden wants to remove terrorist groups from the Sanctions list because they are "largely" gone.

Terrible idea.

Just like the Russian pipeline was "largely" built so they dropped the Trump sanctions on the Russian pipeline?!

Ted Lieu ✓ @tedlieu

Apparently @RichardGrene believes that prior to President Biden, every Asian American, every gay person and every Black female was considered for Supreme Court openings and not a single one of them throughout US history was ever qualified. denmark chose sides in 1949, when nato was formed. but the swedes preferred "neutrality" for a lot of the cold war. neutrality between the free west and the evil empire.

why would nato want to welcome an evidently uncommitted, fair-weather friend such as sweden? and if we're willing to overlook the fact that they are only applying for membership today, a full 73 years after the other two scandinavian countries CO-FOUNDED nato in 1949.

Nathan....it's dopey to repeat partisan talking points.

I spearheaded stopping Putin's Russian pipeline. Your team said I was mean to Germany for forcefully trying to deny Russia money & leverage. The German President now says they were wrong & supports what I was pushing.

This move is ridiculous. They ignore the hundreds of Democrats actually violating the law and instead target Republicans.

Democrats should speak up - this is a terrible slippery slope!

@CynthiaMcFadden and Kevin Monahan at @NBCNightlyNews couldn't validate a made up story, so they edited my response and amplified a lie. This is what Fake News looks like. No sources, just lies.

This is Kevin Monahan from NBC News. NBC News Senior Legal and Investigative Correspondent Cynthia McFadden recently sat down with Michigan Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson regarding a piece Cynthia is doing for NBC Nightly News on the Michigan SoS race. Secretary Benson told Cynthia that she (Benson) was told by someone familiar with the meeting that during a meeting at the White House after the 2020 election President Trump suggested Secretary Benson should be arrested for treason and executed.

We wanted to reach out to President Trump or his team to see if you wanted to confirm or deny this and also to see if you wanted to provide a comment or statement of any kind.

on good authority that Secretary Benson lied throughout her interview because of the network's weak source and reputation for peddling much of unabashed Fake News as described by Me.

Didn't @john_sipher sign a letter 3 weeks before the 2020 elections saying don't look at Hunter Biden's laptop because it's Russian disinformation?

Now he's lecturing people about ethical behavior?! These people have no shame....

"An extensive piece" of pure bullshit.

I wrote an extensive piece last year on what you have to believe for the conspiracy that Clinton framed Trump on Russia to make sense.

This is essentially what DNI Ratcliffe is postulating

CNN: Hillary Clinton personally approved plan to share Trump-Russia allegation with the press in 2016, campaign manager says "We discussed it with Hillary," Mook said, later adding that "she agreed with the decision."

Richard has a seriously twisted argument. While I understand some present NATO members r not paying their fair 2% of their GNP into defense, Ger & Frnce r dramatically upping defense budgets to meet 2%. Plus Finland & Sweden have great militaries, they r adding a lot to NATO

President Biden is planning a visit to Israel, which is being met with apprehension from Israelis – and for good reason.

Unlike previous visits from former President Trump, this trip could do damage to our relationship with Israel, not strengthen it.

You are wrong. The flag is to the women's right. The women facing forward turned away from the US flag despite their teammates facing them.

Here's a picture of the whole team. Which one facing forward has their hand on their heart?! twitter.com/FrankLuntz/sta ...

For the first time, the book provides a detailed, step-by-step guide to the process of developing a business plan, from the initial idea to the final document. The book is written in a clear, concise, and easy-to-understand style, making it accessible to a wide range of readers. The book is divided into two main parts: the first part covers the basics of business planning, and the second part provides a detailed guide to the process of developing a business plan. The book is a valuable resource for anyone who is considering starting a business or who is looking for a way to improve their business plan.

Also, for decades Sweden and Finland have been part of the non-aligned movement - they've worked hard to not be with the West.

The Washington Post

On May 21, 2022, the Attorney General directed me to review requests for disclosure of S. person identities information in disclosed intelligence reports informally called unmasking requests during the 2016 presidential election period and the ensuing presidential transition period. To conduct this review, I assembled a 10-person team led by the Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), two FBI Special Agents, and one FBI Intelligence Analyst. All of whom are available to conduct security matters with no exception. This team I reviewed unmasking requests made between March 2016 and January 2017. This report sets out review findings and recommendations.

(U) EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The A. has not found evidence that section 1.11 officials disclosed the identities of S. persons disclosed in the intelligence reports for the purpose of other appropriate means during the 2016 election period or the ensuing presidential transition period. The entire and majority of relevant unmasking requests were sought by intelligence professionals in anticipation of their hearings or other official duties. These were not sought by the intelligence officials themselves as their direct. Such this latter unmasking had been a regular part of ongoing intelligence in office. In fact, some intelligence in office is created under a statutory process requiring disclosure to S. person identities contained in the intelligence reports that they in order to investigate and as official in their work.

The Attorney General found no unmasking requests made by the Director. One that sought the identity of an apparent associate of the Trump campaign. This substantial majority of relevant election related unmasking requests sought information about the use of intelligence or other activity involving information about individuals who had suffered from attacks. These requests were denied with an explanation that intelligence is a legal favoring the Trump campaign. The requests sought identities of individuals in the intelligence community that were involved in the review of the intelligence reports, who could not determine if the individuals were private communications or publicly available.

To conduct this review, I assembled a "Task Force" consisting of the Assistant Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), the FBI Special Agents, and the FBI's Office of the Inspector General. I reviewed unmasking requests made between March 1, 2014 and January 1, 2017. This report sets out review findings and recommendations.

(U) EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The A. has not found evidence that section 1.11 officials disclosed the identities of S. persons included in the intelligence reports for the purpose of or for any other purpose during the 2016 election period or the ensuing presidential transition period. The evidence that majority of relevant unmasking requests were sought by intelligence officials in anticipation of congressional hearings or other official events. These were not sought by the intelligence officials themselves or their direct staff. Such staff's identity unmasking had been a routine part of preparing intelligence to officials. In some cases, intelligence is shared under a statutory process, including disclosure to unmask all S. person identities included in the intelligence reports that they in turn would investigate and disclose to the public.

The Attorney General found no unmasking requests made by the House. One that sought the identity of an apparent associate of the Trump campaign. The substantial majority of relevant requests related to unmasking requests sought by officials about the role of intelligence or other activity, including information about the campaign that had not been disclosed. These requests were denied and, with an exception, they were not disclosed. A final finding of the Attorney General, the requests sought by officials of intelligence or other information, including the identity of the individuals, were not disclosed. The requests were not disclosed to the public.

We all do. It was leftist politics coming from people supposedly on the right.

That's how we know you were over the target, Kathy. With a fraction of the funds the carpetbaggers had—and minimal media coverage, even at the end—you managed to get over 300k votes. Amazing!

It isn't leftist politics to point out that Kathy wanted to outlaw a religion in America. She rejected the 1st Amendment. She shouldn't be an elected official with this anti-American belief. She also was incredibly homophobic.

Former Acting Director of National Intelligence Ric Grenell endorses America First conservative Republican candidate for Congress Carolina Serrano

Former Liaison for Trump leader in Nevada brings financial strength and a campaign fueled by grassroots supporters, activists, and national & community endorsements in bid to retire Dina Titus

Thursday, June 2, 2022

Contact: Shawnda Turner
STurner@AxionSeagles.com

(Las Vegas, NV) Today, former Acting Director of National Intelligence Ric Grenell endorsed Carolina Serrano in aid to retire Dina Titus in Nevada's First Congressional District.

"Carolina Serrano is the best America First candidate in this race. She is committed to helping President Trump Save America," stated Ric Grenell. She worked tirelessly during President Trump's re-election campaign in 2020 and saw the weakness in Dina Titus early on. Carolina will help lead the invasion of our southern border, help skip the million given to us by Democrats fight for secure elections and push to finally fire Anthony Fauci. She is the only candidate who can retire Dina Titus.

Carolina has racked up key Republican and America First endorsements such as Elise Stefanik, Chair of the House Republican Conference, U.S. Senate candidate and leader of President Trump's Nevada campaign Adam Laxalt, and the Nevada Republican Party.

LINKS AND SOURCES

Biden's approval rating in Nevada is a break 35%. Nevada Hispanic voters favor Trump by 25%. The Red Wave is certainly happening in Nevada.

Despite a 7 Dem deficit, Dina Titus beat at an AFL-CIO town hall after Democratic-controlled redistricting, initially got kicked by the legislature on my district.

After Carolina wins, she will continue organizing Nevada's Hispanic communities to prepare to take back the White House in 2024.

You can learn more about Carolina Serrano by going to her webpage: <http://X.carolinaforcongress.com>

ICYMI:

Fox News Refining America: Nevada, Laura Ingraham

David Wasserman, Brookings Political Report: New Map, 2022 Ballot, Nevada. Or, Nevada's Democratic Gov. Steve Sisolak signed into law a new congressional map that shifts Democratic voters out of Rep. Dina Titus's heavily blue Las Vegas-1st CD to boost vulnerable suburban Democratic Reps. Susie Lee (NV-03) and Steven Horsford (NV-04). The result: all three districts would have voted for President Biden by between seven and nine points, while GOP Rep. Mark Amodei's northern 2nd CD would remain safely GOP.

It's a calculated risk for Democrats because all three Las Vegas area seats could now be highly vulnerable if 2022 develops into a red wave. According to the Nevada Independent's Jon Reinson, Titus is "making her seat as difficult with GOP voters" and even a few Democratic strategists worry it could backfire. But if Democrats are losing Biden +7 or Biden +8 seats next fall, they've clearly survived.

They flood the mailboxes - it's total chaos.

Chris you have so little engagement on this thread I'm not even sure it's worth replying. The gay vote is trending Republican big time so the gathering will be well attended without you but also @TheAdvocateMag is literally irrelevant.

Christopher Wiggins @CWNews1

Interesting... @GovernorVA's motivations here are unclear, because Youngkin has endorsed the myth that transgender students pose a risk in bathrooms.

There will be one seat on the Supreme Court with an asterisk - because not every American was considered to fill it.

Hispanics, Asians, Whites, gays and men were not even considered.

This is a terrible precedent.

quiet about working with Hillary and the

He inherited low gas prices, no war in Ukraine and plenty of baby formula.

He is weak and feeble. Everyone around the world sees it.

Why are newsrooms in DC ignoring the Members of Congress and Cabinet officials who regulate baby formula and gas production?

Hold politicians to account.

Any DC reporter who hasn't raised their voice to condemn the attempted murder of a Supreme Court justice is simply a Democrat activist protecting the ruling party.

This isn't a page 20 story. It's a front page, non-stop coverage event.

Gary Peters hasn't tweeted a single word about a Supreme Court justice targeted for murder by someone from his political party.

But he's tweeted multiple incitements within the last days that women must get angry.

Stop the phony outrage, Gary. Stop inciting violence.

Morning Joe @MorningJoe

@SenGaryPeters: "We all have a stake in the future of this country, we all have to speak out, we all have to condemn these actions, and we all have to be vigilant every single day to make sure that our democracy stays strong."

The people @Liz_Cheney is conspiring with called her dad a war criminal and wanted to prosecute him for war crimes.

Republicans stopped them.

It's clear Liz has lived in Washington, DC for so long that her loyalty is to the swamp.

During the Obama Administration, @AmbRice46 was leading U.S. foreign policy strategies like Benghazi and the red line for Syrian chemical weapons

3. What are you today a news editor or a lefty columnist?

How do you get to be a Progressive opinion columnist and a news editor?

You have to be a known Democrat activist. And a willingness to implode the wall.

The article in Der Spiegel, saying the German gov. called the Pedro Sanchez gov. to block it from sending dozens of Leopard tanks to Ukraine is shocking.

Contacted by Der Spiegel, Spain's gov. & defense ministry refused to comment.

Looks like Sanchez will bow down to Scholz.

Exclusive @AP reporter finds dead woman in press conference quotes her and sees her cry for story on how #MiamiCubans oppose #Democrats Spanish language radio deal and they have the audacity to say we are the ones with #disinformation issues. Azúcar!

"...build spaces for free speech?" she said

One of the most popular commentators, Ninoska Perez, a fervent Trump supporter, has assured listeners that they have been told there would be no major changes.

Martha Flores, who hosts an evening show on Radio Mambi, isn't sure about that. She attended the news conference but declined to speak.

"Look at this," Flores said, pointing at her eyes watering. "I know I would just cry."

Radio Mambi got its start in the 1980s with support from the Reagan administration and has long received federal funding to beam Radio Martí's anti-communist content into Cuba for an hour after midnight each morning. Cuba, in turn, tries to jam the station's signal from reaching the island.

Cubans in Miami recall growing up listening to the station in the kitchen or while in the car. Lt. Gov. Jeanette Núñez shared at the news conference that as a girl she would cry so much that she got annoyed with her father.

BREAKING: Leaked internal Twitter chat shows employees discussing banning @libsoftiktok after 'we successfully deplatformed Trump' and mention it 'may not be in our "fiduciary" interest' to ban a high profile account right now, a reference to @ElonMusk's pending purchase

< Thread #social-watercooler

But if we deplatform this account, we might erode trust in our platform from users who already think we're irredeemably biased against conservatives 🤔

I mean we successfully deplatformed Trump - I don't think deplatforming Libs of TikTok is going to cause a mass exodus but I guess it may not be in our "fiduciary" interest to enact a ban on a high profile account right now...

Earlier today, I told @jim_lamon that I can no longer support his candidacy.

Growing our conservative movement should be the top priority of every Republican candidate, and Jim Lamon understood that when he first got in the U.S. Senate race.

Sadly, something has changed, and he has instead pursued a desperate campaign of attacking courageous conservatives.

The tactics Jim Lamon is now using in his race are wrong and I can no longer support him.

Attacking my friend Peter Thiel is a bad strategy that only helps elect Democrats. Peter has been a champion of conservative values in Silicon Valley and has never wavered from challenging Big Tech.

I have made clear multiple times that the Jeff Roe strategy of attacking Peter may be profitable for Jeff's firm now, but it is a losing strategy for our conservative movement.

NARAL's definition of "extreme" is settled law in most of Western Europe
twitter.com/naral/status/1 ...

On request abortion legal in week

- 0 weeks
(on request, abortion on demand)
- Legal limit between 1-10 weeks
- Legal limit between 11-20 weeks
- Legal limit between 21-30 weeks
- Legal limit between 31-40 weeks

This calculation assumes "viability" at 24 weeks and "heartbeat" at 6 weeks of pregnancy

This calculation looks only at "on request demand" abortions. This does not include abortions due to mother life risk, mother health risk, rape, fetal impairment, or economic/social reasons

Republicans

143 Homosexuality Homosexuality is an abnormal lifestyle choice. We believe there should be no granting of special legal entitlements or creation of special status for homosexual behavior, regardless of state of origin, and we oppose any criminal or civil penalties against those who oppose homosexuality out of faith, conviction, or belief in traditional values. No one should be granted special legal status based on their LGBTQ+ identification.

With just ONE WEEK TO GO before the June 28th Republican Primary for Governor, a new POLL has us up by a massive 21 points over the GOP field. Let's do this!

Congressman Zeldin Holds 21 Point Lead Over GOP Primary Field in New Poll with 1 Week to Go

NEW YORK - A new statewide survey of 600 likely Republican primary election voters in New York, taken between June 16 and June 19, 2022, found Congressman Lee Zeldin (R, NY-1), the Republican Party and Conservative Party designee for Governor holding a massive 21 point lead over the field

"New Yorkers from every corner of our state are sick and tired of the attacks on our wallets, safety, freedom and kids' education. and they know it's going to take a new generation of leadership to Save Our State" said Congressman Zeldin "In poll after poll New Yorkers have made it clear that they're all in on our rescue mission to restore New York to glory and that losing is not an option. We have the issues on our side we have the grassroots support on our side. and on June 28th Republican primary voters are going to send a message loud and clear that we have New Yorkers on our side"

One of the more astute tweets by a Trumpster; all the Democrats want is to make it easier to vote. Voting...in the USA...easy...what a concept.

Of course, the GOP is against it

How about we create a national id that is given to every citizen free of charge and have a program to ensure it's not difficult to acquire?

They've tried to distract you with a war, a fake insurrection on our democracy - and now they are warning of another pandemic.

What they really want is to vote by mail - and therefore stay in power.

The counter culture is conservative. Wake up.

It got violent.
Here she is bragging about it.

U I am NOT a gun owner, but I am requesting for others to lay down their arms. My heart breaks watching innocent people get slaughtered like this. So today ask gun owners to lay down their weapons and give the government permission to take them away. We must end the violence!

Fake news. It was just for advertising abortions not "for information".

Do journalism.

 The New York Times  @nytimes • 2h

Germany ended a Nazi-era ban on the advertisement of abortion services, a measure that had effectively criminalized doctors who provided information about the procedure. The vote came on the same day that Roe v. Wade was overturned in the U.S. nyti.ms/3yf9Oh1

Judaism and Abortion

NCJW works to ensure that every single person can make their own moral and faith-informed decisions about their body, health, and future. Our Jewish values compel us to support full access to safe and legal abortion care as basic health care. Below is a Q&A regarding some common misconceptions about Judaism and abortion.

- Does Jewish law state that life begins at conception? No, life does not begin at conception under Jewish law. Sources in the Talmud note that the fetus is "mere water" before 40 days of gestation. Following this period, the fetus is considered a physical part of the pregnant individual's body, not yet having life of its own or independent rights. The fetus is not viewed as separate from the parent's body until birth begins and the first breath of oxygen into the lungs allows the soul to enter the body.
- Does Jewish law assert that it is possible to murder a fetus? No, Jewish law does not consider a fetus to be alive. The Torah, Exodus 21:22-23, recounts a story of two men who are fighting and injure a pregnant woman, resulting in her subsequent miscarriage. The verse explains that if the only harm done is the miscarriage, then the perpetrator must pay a fine. However, if the pregnant person is gravely injured, the penalty shall be a life for a life as in other homicides. The common rabbinical interpretation of this verse is that the men did not commit murder and that the fetus is not a person. The primary concern is the well-being of the person who was injured.
- According to Jewish law, is abortion health care? Yes, Jewish sources explicitly state that abortion is not only permitted but is required should the pregnancy endanger the life or health of the pregnant individual. Furthermore, "health" is commonly interpreted to encompass psychological health as well as physical health. NCJW advocates for abortion access as an essential component of comprehensive, affordable, confidential, and equitable family planning, reproductive, sexual health, and maternal health services.
- What does Jewish law say about the rights of the person who is pregnant and the rights of the fetus? Judaism values life and affirms that protecting existing life is paramount at all stages of pregnancy. A fetus is not considered a person under Jewish law and therefore "It's settled as precedent of the Supreme Court," Kavanaugh said. "One of the important things to keep in mind about Wade is that it has been reaffirmed times."

"[Roe v. Wade] is the law of the land," Gorsuch answered. "I accept the law of the land, senator, yes."

Judges can't just wake one day and have an agenda — I like guns, I hate like abortion, I hate abortion — and like a royal queen and impose their world. It's not the law of Amy," she the law of the American people."

THEY LIED TO U

I think more liberals should travel or move outside of the U.S. I'm confident they will want to come back - because the U.S. is the greatest country in the world.

Too many liberals hate our country and don't know how great they have it.

So basically John Dean Jr. perjured herself under oath and The J6 Comm ttee knew she was perjuring herself because they already had testimony from Herschmann directly contradicting her testimony, yet made no attempt to correct the record or corroborate her testimony in any way. PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP ENDORSES J.D. VANCE FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE IN OHIO

MAGA patriots from across the nation are set to deliver an election landslide for Republicans that will serve as a devastating rebuke of the failures of Joe Biden and the Radical Left Democrats. In the Great State of Ohio, the candidate most qualified and ready to win in November is J.D. Vance. We cannot play games. It is all about winning!

Like some others, J.D. Vance may have said some not so great things about me in the past, but he gets it now, and I have seen said great things about "Trump" and, like me, they love Ohio and love our Country. I've studied this race closely and I think J.D. is the most likely to take out the weak, but dangerous, Democrat opponent—dangerous because they will have so much money to spend. However, J.D. will destroy him in the debates and will fight for the MAGA Movement in the Senate. He's strong on the Border, tough on Crime, understands how to use Taxes and Tariffs to hold China accountable, will fight to break up Big Tech, and has been a warrior on the Rigged and Stolen Presidential Election. J.D. is a Marine who served in the Iraq War, a graduate of The Ohio State University, and earned a Law Degree from Yale—a great student. With J.D. Vance, Ohio gets both brains and brawn. Ohio has been good to me, I won it twice, really BIG, and I have likewise been GREAT for Ohio. Let's keep it going!

It is time for the entire MAGA movement, the greatest in the history of our Country, to unite behind J.D.'s campaign because, unlike so many other pretenders and wannabes, he will put America First. In other words, J.D. Vance has my Complete and However, J.D. will destroy him in the debates and will fight for the MAGA Movement in the Senate. He’s strong on the Border, tough on Crime, understands how to use Taxes and Tariffs to hold China accountable, will fight to break up Big Tech, and has been a warrior on the Rigged and Stolen Presidential Election. J.D. is a Marine who served in the Iraq War, a graduate of The Ohio State University, and earned a Law Degree from Yale— a great student. With J.D. Vance, Ohio gets both brains and brawn. Ohio has been good to me, I won it twice, really BIG, and I have likewise been GREAT for Ohio. Let’s keep it going!

It is time for the entire MAGA movement, the greatest in the history of our Country, to unite behind J.D.’s campaign because, unlike so many other pretenders and wannabes, he will put America First. In other words, J.D. Vance has my Complete and

Ambassador @RichardGrenell Statement on California Primary Election Delays

FIXCALIFORNIA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
7/1/2022
Contact: josh@fixcalifornia.com

Ambassador Ric Grenell Statement on California Primary Election Delays

After more than three weeks of counting ballots, California counties are just now beginning to certify the vote tallies from the June 7 primary election, with some races not being decided until just this week. While political and media officials continue to refer to our recent elections as “the most safe and secure,” public trust of this system continues to decline as there is no reasonable explanation for voters waiting this long for election results.

These extended ballot counting periods have become the new norm in California – but they are unacceptable. These delays only amplify the growing distrust of the most critical part of our political system. And these issues are part of a growing list of egregious election practices in California:

- Bloated voter rolls with ineligible voters registered throughout the state
- Universal mail-in elections – over 21 million ballots sent out with little scrutiny
- Legalized ballot solicitation
- No voter I.D.
- Counties accepting ballots days after the election

Californians do not have faith that Sacramento officials understand the outrage. The people no longer trust the complicit media who dutiful allow our elections to be conducted this way. It is abundantly clear that these practices make it easier to cheat. And this charade continues to unfold right in front of us. I started Fix California with the goal of bringing real election integrity to our state, and we will not stop fighting on all fronts until we restore trust and confidence in this system.

Fix California has put every county on notice: clean up your voter rolls or we’ll see them in court to ensure the law is followed. We will also continue educating voters about the threats caused by California’s dangerous voting laws and how policies like Voter ID requirements and single-day voting can ensure the most secure elections. There is still much work to be done and we won’t stop trying to Fix California.

ABOUT: Fix California, a 501(c)4 founded by Ambassador Ric Grenell, is committed to pursuing long term solutions that advance conservative ideas and causes throughout the state. The left’s stranglehold on the state has decimated industries, families, and California’s way of life. In order to restore the promise of the Golden State, we must do the hard work now including securing our elections and registering new voters.

Flynn communicated with Kislyak in what appears to be undermining of sitting President's counter measures.

I had to fire General Flynn because he lied to the Vice President and the FBI. He has pled guilty to those lies. It is a shame because his actions during the transition were lawful. There is nothing to hide!

No President has ever vocally excluded Asians, Hispanics and men for the Court.

Stop defending this horrific precedent of intolerance. Shame on you for supporting racism and sexism.

What about the fact that minorities were historically excluded from Supreme Court openings? Do you actually believe not a single Asian American, gay or Black female prior to Biden was qualified? What about that? Why won't you answer the real question?

TikTok Is not just another video app
That's the sheep's clothing.

It harvests swaths of sensitive data that new reports show are being accessed in Beijing

I've called on @Apple & @Google to remove TikTok from their app stores for its pattern of surreptitious data practices.

Show this thread

Mr. Sundar Pichai
Chief Executive Officer
Alphabet Inc. and Google LLC

Dear Mr. Cook and Mr. Pichai:

Last week, an alarming new report shed fresh light on the serious national security threats posed by TikTok. As you know, TikTok is an app that is available to millions of Americans through your app stores, and it collects vast troves of sensitive data about those U.S. users. TikTok is owned by Beijing-based ByteDance—an organization that is beholden to the Communist Party of China and required by Chinese law to comply with the PRC's surveillance demands. Through leaked audio recordings, last week's BuzzFeed News report revealed that ByteDance officials in Beijing have repeatedly accessed the sensitive data that TikTok has collected from Americans after those U.S. users downloaded the app through your app stores. "Everything is seen in China," a TikTok official said in the recordings, despite the fact that TikTok has repeatedly represented that the data it gathers about Americans is stored in the United States.

I am writing the two of you because Apple and Google hold themselves out as operating app stores that are safe and trusted places to discover and download apps. Nonetheless, Apple and Google have reviewed and approved the TikTok app for inclusion in your respective app stores. Indeed, statistics show that TikTok has been downloaded in the U.S. from the Apple App Store and the Google Play Store nearly 19 million times in the first quarter of this year alone. It is clear that TikTok poses an unacceptable national security risk due to its extensive data harvesting being combined with Beijing's apparently unchecked access to that sensitive data.

But it is even clearer that TikTok is a national security risk due to its extensive data harvesting being combined with Beijing's apparently unchecked access to that sensitive data. U.S. national security agencies have similarly banned TikTok from U.S. federal devices citing national security risks, including the Department of Defense, Department of Homeland Security, and the TSA.

- The RNC and DNC have warned campaigns about using TikTok based on security concerns and the threat of officials in Beijing accessing sensitive data.
- Citing data security concerns, private U.S. business operations have also banned TikTok from company devices, including Wells Fargo.
- Once accessed by personnel in Beijing, there is no check on the CCP using the extensive, private, and sensitive data about U.S. users for espionage activities because compliance with the PRC's 2017 National Intelligence Law is mandatory in China.

The concerns over TikTok are shared on a bipartisan basis by a wide range of U.S. officials, independent cybersecurity experts, and privacy and civil rights groups. For instance, in 2019, then-Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer and Senator Tom Cotton described TikTok as a "potential counterintelligence threat we cannot ignore." Senators Mark Warner and Marco Rubio, the respective Chairman and Vice Chairman of the U.S. Senate Select Committee on Intelligence have also expressed their concerns about TikTok, and in particular its obligation to comply with the demands of the Chinese state, notwithstanding commitments the company has made to its own users or U.S. law. Congressman Adam Schiff, Chair of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, has also warned of the inherent risks associated with the app. Numerous other Senators have expressed their concerns as well, including Senators Ted Cruz and Marsha Blackburn, who pressed TikTok's head of public policy for the Americas during a

Last week's news report only adds to an overwhelming body of evidence that TikTok presents a serious national security threat. And as relevant to this letter it also underscores TikTok's failure to comply with the data security requirements and other terms set forth in the Apple App Store and Google Play Store policies. Some of the concerning evidence or determinations regarding TikTok's data practices include:

- In August 2020, TikTok circumvented a privacy safeguard in Google's Android operating system to obtain data that allowed it to track users online.
- In March 2020, researchers discovered that TikTok, through its app in the Apple App Store, was accessing users' most sensitive data, including passwords, cryptocurrency wallet addresses, and personal messages.
- In 2021, TikTok agreed to pay $92 million to settle lawsuits alleging that the app clandestinely accumulated and transferred to servers in China (and to other servers accessible from within China) vast quantities of private and personally identifiable user data and content that could be employed to identify, profile, and track the physical and digital location and activities of United States users now and in the future.
- The BuzzFeed News investigation identified a "Master Admin" located in Beijing that "has access to everything" despite TikTok's claims about storing sensitive data in the U.S.
- In March 2022, a report included current and former TikTok employees stating in interviews that TikTok delegates key decisions to ByteDance officials in Beijing and traffic is being routed to Oracle, says nothing about where that data can be accessed from.

There is ample precedent for removing TikTok from the app stores too. In 2018, for instance, Apple removed an app titled Adware Doctor from the Mac App Store because it collected user data and sent it to a server located in China without user consent. Similarly, Google recently pulled dozens of apps from the Google Play Store after concluding that they used a software element that surreptitiously harvested data.

Moreover, Apple and Google have long claimed to operate their app stores in a manner that protects consumer privacy and safeguards their data. Therefore, I am requesting that you apply your app store policies to TikTok and remove it from the Apple App Store and the Google Play Store for failing to comply with those policies. If you do not remove TikTok from your app stores, please provide separate responses to me by July 8, 2022, explaining the basis for your company's conclusion that the surreptitious access of private and sensitive U.S. user data by persons located in Beijing, coupled with TikTok's pattern of misleading representations and conduct, does not run afoul of any of your app store policies.

Sincerely,

Brendan Carr

This past April, the Biden administration sold 950,000 Strategic Petroleum Reserve barrels to a Chinese gas company that a private equity firm co-founded by HUNTER BIDEN owns a $1.7 billion stake in

#BidenCrimeFamily

WASHINGTON FREE BEACON

Biden's Energy Department in April announced the sale of 950,000 Strategic Petroleum Reserve barrels to Unipetec, the trading arm of the China Petrochemical Corporation. That company, which is commonly known as Sinopec, is wholly owned by the Chinese government. The Biden administration claimed the move would "address the pain Americans are feeling at the pump" and "help lower energy costs." More than five million barrels of oil released from the U.S. emergency reserves, however, were sent overseas last month, according to a Wednesday Reuters report. At least one shipment of American crude went to China, the report said.

Turner also said the decision highlights the Biden family's "relationship with China." Biden's son, Hunter Biden, is tied to Sinopec. In 2015, a private equity firm he cofounded bought a $1.7 billion stake in Sinopec Marketing. Sinopec went on to enter negotiations to purchase Gazprom in March, one month after the Biden administration sanctioned the Russian gas giant.

Biden campaigned heavily against the oil and gas industry in 2020, promising to "end fossil fuel." He went on to cancel the Keystone XL pipeline and implement a moratorium on new gas leases on federal land during his first month in office. Biden's energy secretary

There is a huge disconnect with those of you in DC.

You live in a bubble.

The rest of America doesn't believe J6 was an insurrection, thinks IDs to vote is a no-brainer, thinks schools should be open, the border should be closed and that Joe Biden is physically unstable.

You people created @GavinNewsom and @KamalaHarris. He knows he can get away with it.

The California media is worse than DC's media.

There is a supermajority of Democrats and yet the CA media criticizes Republicans more.

You help the powerful.

It's sick.

Emily Hoeven

@emilly_hoeven · Jul 6

SCOOP: @GavinNewsom is on vacation in Montana. His office had been oath to disclose the location until now.

Montana is one of 22 states to which CA bans state-funded travel due to anti-LGBTQ+ policies. It's also likely to institute an abortion ban.

You haven't been paying attention if you think Europe has been aligned with us. They've been moving away from the West for decades. And American NGOs have cheered it on.

NGO types who critique from the sidelines don't understand real world diplomacy...

Congress doesn't vote to condemn European government positions, Foreign diplomats regularly care what America says & ask America for help, Europe largely has a 15 week abortion law.

ian bremer ✓ @ianbremmer · 13h many (maybe most!) americans will react "who cares what the europeans say?"

which will help americans understand how other countries often respond to the United States condemning their domestic political decisions

The Abe assassination has not forced the U.S. Left to think about their mob tactics and what it's doing to entice disturbed people.

Nor has the DC media looked inward at their tactics of promoting crazy.

NEW: Justice Brett Kavanaugh had to exit through the rear of Morton's on Wednesday night after DC protestors showed up out front. A Morton's rep told me "Politics ... should not trample the freedom at play of the right to congregate and eat dinner." politico.com/newsletters/p...

justices who signed onto the Dobbs decision overturning the constitutional right to abortion got a tip that Justice BRETT KAVANAUGH was dining at Morton's downtown D.C. location. Protesters soon showed up out front, called the manager to tell him to kick Kavanaugh out and later tweeted that the justice was forced to exit through the rear of the restaurant.

Daniel Lippman looked into the incident for us and confirmed that account.

While the court had no official comment on Kavanaugh's behalf and a unruly protestors while eating dinner at our Morton's restaurant. Politics, regardless of your side or views, should not trample the freedom at play of the right to congregate and eat dinner. There is a time and place for everything. Disturbing the dinner of all of our customers was an act of selfishness and void of decency."

@Karrin4Arizona is running an attack campaign that is despicable. It's not about policies but is simply personal.

The gobs of money she is pouring into her dirty tricks campaign cannot stop the America First candidates.

 Jason Rose PR @jasonrosepr · 53m

PROXY WAR & POTPOURRI @DougDucey goes all in vs. #Trump in race to replace him for #Arizona Governor with massive mobilization for @Karrin4Arizona as 2 new national polls show #GOP up +8 on congressional ballot meaning her nomination likely cements win in November.

There is a huge disconnect with those of you in DC.

You live in a bubble.

The rest of America doesn't believe J6 was an insurrection, thinks IDs to vote is a no-brainer, thinks schools should be open, the border should be closed and that Joe Biden is physically unstable.

Together we will end democracy.

Clerence Thomas, writing separate in the abortion ruling, says the Supreme Court should now "reconsider" its decisions that found a right to contraception, sex between consenting adult men, and same sex marriage — and "correct the error" it made in those cases.

For that reason, in future cases, we should reconsider all of this Court’s substantive due process precedents, including Griswold, Lawrence, and Obergefell. Because any substantive due process decision is “demonstrably erroneous,” Ramos v. Louisiana, 590 U. S. ___, ___ (2020) (THOMAS, J., concurring in judgment) (slip op., at 7), we have a duty to “correct the error” established in those precedents, Gamble v. United States, 587 U. S. ___, ___ (2019) (THOMAS, J., concurring) (slip op., at 9). After overruling these demonstrably erroneous decisions, the question would remain whether other constitutional provisions guarantee the myriad rights that our substantive due process cases have generated. For example, we could consider whether any of the rights announced in this Court’s substantive due process cases are “privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States” protected by the Fourteenth Amendment. Democrats control the House, the Senate and the White House.

They shouldn't be complaining about anything. They don't need a single Republican vote to do abortion on demand, the green new deal, higher taxes...

They can do whatever they want....

And now Nord Stream 1 is going down.

Is anyone else ready to say that Chancellor Merkel made strategic national security mistakes yet?

Her embrace of a green new deal made Europe less safe.

She moved Germany away from the West and recklessly embraced Putin.

Why are newsrooms in DC ignoring the Members of Congress and Cabinet officials who regulate baby formula and gas production?

Hold politicians to account.

The GOP policies remove regulation that would keep people safe & the GOP lobbyists make sure to keep barriers to entry high for their donors. As for oil & gas, companies use the leases to pad their balance sheet not to increase production. And you won't reverse these policies.

Can you cite a regulation that is forcing baby formula and fuel production down?

Are you a biologist? What's a female?

This is a ridiculous point, Leslie

But if this is the rule then sit down about gay issues. You ain't gay. And since you haven't served in the military you must not comment on the Pentagon's budget.

Richard, I consider you a friend, but when you have a daughter, as I do, call me... please. I am fighting for HER rights...

I never said you can't comment on these issues Richard, I simply said I'm fighting for my daughter's rights - this, for me, has nothing to do with Democrat or Republican. For me, this has to do with much, much more.

I can't count the # of times my pro-life friends asked me where planned parenthood was when their son got a girl pregnant, their daughter got pregnant, or their daughter was raped and became pregnant. My point was, you might feel/think differently if you had a daughter.

Where are the adults at @cnn?! Who is allowing @FWnetfield to do such advocacy?!?!

Fredrica just interviewed LA County's wacky Barbara Ferrer and never asked a single tough question about her threat to re-impose a mask mandate. #pathetic

Dear God! @CamilaBerna just did a report on CNN interviewing THREE people on the potential re-introduction of the mask mandate and all three support a new mask mandate an epidemiologist at LA County USC hospital this morning reported that there's 24 covid positive cases today, however, 0 patients in covid pulmonary treatment and 0 patients showing covid symptoms. He goes on to say it is probably typical at every LA region hospital.

Media Confidence Ratings at Record Lows

Americans' confidence in two facets of the news media -- newspapers and television news -- has fallen to record low points

There is a huge disconnect with those of you in DC.

You live in a bubble.

The rest of America doesn't believe J6 was an insurrection, thinks IDs to vote is a no-brainer, thinks schools should be open, the border should be closed and that Joe Biden is physically unstable.

The Democrats control the House, the Senate and the White House.

They don't need a single Republican vote to do anything they want.

 Sheldon Whitehouse ✓ @SenWhitehouse · Jul 17

Behind the scenes, right-wing dark money groups groomed & selected radical justices for the Trump Administration to nominate. Then, those groups wrote new anti-abortion laws designed for their handpicked justices to rule on. This is a long running operation, & it's not over yet.

California lawmakers want to change the State's Constitution to guarantee abortion in the 9th month.
It will have to go to a vote of all Californians.
I don't believe pro-choice Californians want this radical policy.

In a 5-4 concurring opinion, Thomas says the court should reconsider rulings that protect contraception, same sex relationships, and same sex marriage

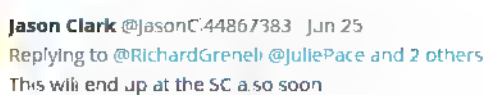

THOMAS, J., concurring

381 U. S. 479 (1965) (right of married persons to obtain contraceptives)*; Lawrence v. Texas, 539 U. S. 558 (2003) (right to engage in private, consensual sexual acts); and Obergefell v. Hodges, 576 U. S. 644 (2015) (right to same-sex marriage), are not at issue. The Court’s abortion cases are unique, see ante, at 31–32, 66, 71–72, and no party has asked us to decide “whether our entire Fourteenth Amendment jurisprudence must be preserved or revised,” McDonald, 561 U. S., at 813 (opinion of THOMAS, J.). Thus, I agree that “[n]othing in [the Court’s] opinion should be understood to cast doubt on precedents that do not concern abortion.” Ante, at 66.

For that reason, in future cases, we should reconsider all of this Court’s substantive due process precedents, including Griswold, Lawrence, and Obergefell. Because any substantive due process decision is “demonstrably erroneous,” Ramos v. Louisiana, 590 U. S. ___, ___ (2020) (THOMAS, J., concurring in judgment) (slip op., at 7), we have a duty to “correct the error” established in those precedents, Gamble v. United States, 587 U. S. ___, ___ (2019) (THOMAS, J., concurring) (slip op., at 9). After overruling these demonstrably erroneous decisions, the question would remain whether other constitutional provisions guarantee the myriad rights that our substantive due process cases have generated. For example, we could consider whether any of the rights announced in this Court’s substantive due process cases are “privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States” protected by the Fourteenth Amendment. Amdt.

Griswold v. Connecticut* purported not to rely on the Due Process Clause, but rather reasoned “that specific guarantees in the Bill of Rights”—including rights enumerated in the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Ninth Amendments—“have penumbras, formed by emanations,” that create “zones of privacy.” 381 U. S., at 484. Since Griswold, the Court, perhaps recognizing the facial absurdity of Griswold’s penumbral argument, has characterized the decision as one rooted in substantive due process. See, e.g., Obergefell v. Hodges, 576 U. S. 644, 663 (2015);

Brandi Kruse: Reagan Dunn did cut law enforcement's budget BUT times were tough.

Me: Figure it out, Reagan. Don't cut law enforcement even when times are tough.

WATCH Brandi Kruse shines light on Jesse Jensen's desperate falsehoods about my record, and calls his lies "misleading" in reality. I increased funding for our law enforcement officers by an average of $90 million/yr since elected. I hope you'll take a moment to listen & share

Then I stand corrected. My understanding was that Pres Trump offered national guard troop assistance to DC, in advance, but Bowser declined. Therefore, Trump could not unilaterally deploy the national guard as a police force.

The way @PeteButtigieg answers this question about protecting marriage equality: raw, emotional, and personal. Representation matters and making Republicans own the votes they're taking against real families is something we're going to do now through November.

I don't recall @Jaketapper hosting a similarly self-absorbed interview about gay identity politics from @RichardGrenell, who was busy doing his job.

What is @PeteButtigieg doing, exactly, about airport backlogs, port congestion? Just being a whiny bitch.

Didn't @john_sipher sign a letter 3 weeks before the 2020 elections saying don't look at Hunter Biden's laptop because it's Russian disinformation?

Now he's lecturing people about ethical behavior?! These people have no shame....

Fingers crossed that someone will stop some ethical behavior. Behavior they demand and require from all public servants.

Read the letter. There are no lies there. The Russians clearly used the issue to damage our country but you and your ilk merely enabled and furthered Russian disinformation. Then again, you will support anything - even lies - to suck up to Trump.

If the government of New Zealand really thinks it is the only arbiter of truth, It is time to kick them out of Five Eyes.

The U.S. government must have partners who recognize that governments make mistakes and therefore must always be challenged in their assessments.

Without a commitment to allow outside verification of information through a transparent process, the truth is threatened - and government officials will inevitably protect their partisan political goals.

Her statement is a threat to the rule of law

Yikes. He sounds like he's drunk and dying....

Slurring words in a video means the White House team gave up doing more takes....

Is there really no one at the White House willing to save this guy from embarrassing himself and our country?!

United States government official

Brave women and men in uniform across America should never forget that the defeated former president of the United States watched January 6th happen and didn't have the spine to act.

In my remarks today to @nobienatl, I made that clear: youtu.be/qhWp1nE7PO0

I feel like the scientific establishment has to share doubts & dissent to function. Every advance comes from challenge. If the scientific establishment said, this is our best guess at this time, it would be more credible.

CNN's @wolfblitzer has a panel of three people who all agree with him - and who all hate Trump.

Wolf has no dissenting voices to talk about the J6 Committee (where there are no dissenting voices either).

This is unAmerican.
